About The Angelus

The Angelus is "A place to live, to love, to learn". It is home for severely handicapped persons who are not able to care for themselves. All residents and students are confined to wheelchairs. Most are non-verbal, some are blind, some are deaf, some are mentally retarded, some have normal intelligence, but all understand kindness and love.

The Angelus was founded in St. Petersburg, Florida in 1979. Today, thanks to the overwhelming community support, The Angelus is located on 17 acres of beautiful wooded land in Pasco County. There are five group homes, a day program, a wood shop, a pool, miniature horses, a multi-sensory room, Charlie's Lodge named for country legend and supporter, Charlie Daniels and a covered pavilion to be used for various activities.

With the continued support of countless celebrities, artists and the community, the goals and philosophy of The Angelus will be maintained, and the quality of life for these people who cannot help themselves will be assured.

The Angelus is a not-for-profit 501c(3) corporation. Donations are tax deductible as permitted by law. In the event of inclement weather or celebrity cancellations, no refund will be given. Thank you for your donations.

For more information and a current list of participating celebrities, other sponsorship packages or to order online, visit our website at www.theangelus.com. Thank you for your support, it is greatly appreciated.
